EXPERIENCE CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Roshni Babu (Employee Code 30002527) worked as Research Assistant for the project "The Ethics of Teaching in Pluralistic and Unequal Societies" (Project Code 17SHASTRI001) sponsored by the Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute, for the period 15 December 2017 to 13 March 2018, for a consolidated remuneration of ₹ 42000/- plus OCA.

Roshni's main responsibility as Research Assistant was to assist the Principle Investigator (PI) with research, documentation and any other project related work/activity. During her tenure, she researched on three academic papers and was able to send out two of them for publication. A third paper, which is being readied, pertains to a co-authored paper with Prof. Pravesh Jung for the Conference on the project theme, slated for November 2018.

Roshni is known to me during the whole span of her PhD research work at the Department of Humanities at IIT Bombay as a member of her Research Progress Committee. Her knowledge of philosophy and talent for original philosophical thinking was on display during this period and later as RA for the project. In my opinion, Roshni has the capacity to develop into an original philosopher, capable of contextualizing the philosophy she reads with reference to the Indian situation. She is capable of independent thinking, close reading of original texts, capacity for originality, contextualizing western philosophy, and patient and concentrated research work. I have great respect for her research potential, personal integrity and work ethic.
