Dear Dr. Santosh,

Greetings!

Dr. Nitika Parmar, Professor, Biology Program, Director, MS Biotechnology program, Program Director, CIRM Bridges to Stem Cell Research Training Grant Program, California State University, Channel Islands will be visiting our department on 26.12.2018 at around 10:00 AM.

She will be visiting along with 14 Biology undergraduate students of California State University.

During her visit, we are planning for our department presentation with all relevant details and research profile of faculty members along with tour of our facilities/labs of School of Basic Sciences and meeting with faculty members and research scholars for future collaborations.

Dr. M.M. Sharma is coordinating the event, please get back to him for further clarification/ information.

Best Regards,
Abhijeet Singh
Head, Biosciences
