IAESTE Liability Policy

General Arrangements:

1. Compliance with the host company/institution directives.
The student will comply with the relevant rules and regulations of the receiving host company/institution while training at the host company/institution.
2. Responsibility for property loss and damage
The student will be responsible for loss of, or damage to the property of his/her receiving company/institution caused by him/herself (malicious intent).
3. Intellectual property rights and confidential information
As a general rule, the receiving company/institution is expected to maintain any intellectual property rights which may result from a particular program involving the student.
4. Other subjects
The receiving company/institution is expected to agree directly with trainees in writing, on any subjects or specific arrangements other than those listed initially in their offer, if the company/institution considers it necessary.

Waiver of liability:

IAESTE (the International Association with its executive bodies, the Members and Co-operating Institutions of the sending and receiving countries) assumes no responsibility or liability for any injury, accident damage, financial losses (for housing reservations....) additional delay or other irregularities suffered by the student, the receiving company./institution or any other party, other than those which may be caused by willful or negligent acts or omissions on the part of IAESTE, in which case the respective involved party of IAESTE as listed will be solely responsible. IAESTE shall not be responsible or liable for consequences or natural calamities, labor strikes, Acts Of God, war and other factors beyond IAESTE's reasonable control.

Insurance:

In the light of IAESTE's limitation of liability and responsibility set forth above, the student is obliged to have the necessary arrangements for health and accident coverage for the duration of his/her training, including the time spent travelling and leisure activities. Further coverage must be taken out by the student in relation to his/her property loss and damage.
