5 GENDER EQUALITY

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

SDG5 Gender Equality Education is the prime measure to be taken to make society free from gender gap menaces. Manipal University Jaipur teaches its new generation about the best social practices and gender-equal rights and believes that we can eradicate such menaces aptly. Many policies have been designed and implemented by the government of India and Manipal has also designed such policies in adherence to gender equality. Manipal believes that it can only be erased from the deepest point by using education as the prime weapon.

SDG 5: Gender inequality

Manipal University Jaipur is committed to ensuring Gender equality in all of its practices and policies.

Manipal University Jaipur ensures full and effective participation and equal opportunities for leadership: This target focuses on increasing women's participation in decision-making processes at all levels. It includes promoting women's leadership in political, economic, and public life, as well as ensuring equal opportunities for leadership roles in various sectors. MUJ encourages the implementation of gender-responsive policies, laws, and practices to address discrimination and create an enabling environment for gender equality.

MUJ emphasizes the need for transformative change in societal attitudes, norms, and policies. By addressing the root causes of gender inequality and promoting women's empowerment, the world can move closer to a future where every individual, regardless of gender, can fulfill their potential and contribute meaningfully to society.

Manipal University Jaipur has a maternity policy that ensures that comprehensive and supportive maternity and paternity policies are in practice to ensure that women can fully participate in university life without being hindered by the challenges of family planning and caregiving responsibilities. This policy outlines our commitment to creating an inclusive and supportive environment for women, promoting gender equality, and ensuring that maternity and paternity policies are aligned with these goals.

Manipal University Jaipur's Non-Discrimination Policy is unwavering in its commitment to promoting gender equality, diversity, and inclusion within its academic community. We firmly stand against any form of discrimination or bias against women and are dedicated to creating a campus environment where women have equal opportunities to access, engage, and excel in all aspects of university life.

Through Its various policies and practices, it ensures:

1. To promote gender diversity and equity within the university community.
2. To create an inclusive and supportive campus environment for women.
3. To actively encourage and facilitate women's applications, acceptance, and entry into our academic programs.
