

Manipal University Jaipur's Commitment to Fostering Health and Well-being through Community Outreach and Student Volunteering

Manipal University Jaipur (MUJ) is deeply committed to enhancing the health and well-being of its surrounding communities through a variety of outreach programs and student-led volunteering initiatives. Recognizing the vital role that universities play in creating positive social impact, MUJ actively engages with local communities to address pressing health issues and promote overall well-being.

MUJ's community outreach programs are designed to provide essential healthcare services, spread awareness about preventive healthcare, and improve the quality of life for underprivileged sections of society. The university regularly organizes health camps, wellness workshops, and medical check-ups in nearby rural areas, offering free consultations, treatments, and medications to those in need. These initiatives are often conducted in collaboration with local healthcare providers and NGOs, ensuring that a wide range of services, from basic healthcare to specialized medical attention, is made accessible to all. Central to MUJ's outreach efforts is the active participation of its students, who are encouraged to volunteer in these programs as part of their holistic education. Student volunteering initiatives focus on promoting public health, environmental sustainability, and social welfare. Students from various disciplines, including medical, paramedical, and social sciences, work alongside faculty and professionals to conduct health awareness campaigns, hygiene drives, and mental health support sessions in local schools and communities.

These experiences not only contribute to the health and well-being of the local population but also instill a strong sense of social responsibility in the students. Through hands-on involvement, students learn the importance of empathy, leadership, and civic engagement, preparing them to become responsible citizens and changemakers in their future careers.

MUJ's dedication to health and well-being extends beyond just providing services—it is about creating lasting partnerships with local communities, empowering them with the knowledge and resources to lead healthier lives. By fostering these connections, Manipal University Jaipur reinforces its mission of serving society while nurturing compassionate, socially conscious graduates.

Subject: Letter of appreciation and gratitude for workshop
Respected Sir/Madam,

I am writing on behalf of Ashray Care Home, Jaipur, to express our deepest gratitude to the Department of Fashion Design and the Directorate of Student's Welfare at Manipal University Jaipur, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS), for conducting a remarkable workshop on crochette and paper origami on 18th October 2023.

The workshop, led by the dedicated faculty coordinators, Mr. Harshwardhan Soni and Ms. Pratibha Mishra, was a beacon of hope and inspiration for the 30 girls at Ashray Care Home who are affected by HIV. The initiative not only provided them with valuable craft skills but also instilled a sense of self-dependence and purpose in their lives. Your team's commitment to addressing Sustainable Development Goals (SDG's) 1, 2, 3, and 4 through this workshop is truly commendable.

The collaborative effort demonstrated by your institution and the NSS showcased a profound understanding of the importance of education and skill development, particularly for individuals facing challenging circumstances. Through your workshop, these young girls were empowered with creative skills that will undoubtedly contribute to their livelihoods and personal growth.

We appreciate the thoughtfulness and expertise your team brought to the workshop, making it a meaningful and enriching experience for the participants. Your dedication to social causes and community development is evident through your actions, and we are truly honored to have been a part of this initiative.

Once again, thank you for your valuable contribution to our cause. We look forward to the possibility of collaborating on similar projects in the future and continuing our joint efforts to make a positive impact on the lives of those in need.

Sushruti

- Brief Description of the event

On the 2nd of November, 2023, the Enviro Club organized a comprehensive workshop on Menstrual Health and Hygiene at Venue AB1, 105. The event featured various segments, including the formal welcome of esteemed guests and attendees, followed by the introduction of Saukhyam and its representative, Ms. Divya Rai.

During her presentation, Ms. Rai enlightened the audience about the paramount importance of menstrual health. She provided insights into Saukhyam's unique approach to manufacturing eco-friendly and biodegradable menstrual pads, utilizing banana fiber. Emphasizing their commitment to sustainability, Ms. Rai highlighted the absence of harmful chemicals in Saukhyam pads.

Furthermore, Ms. Rai elucidated the intricate process involved in crafting these pads and offered detailed instructions on their correct usage. The informative session aimed at raising awareness about sustainable menstrual products proved to be educative for both staff members and students in attendance.

Taking the initiative a step further, Ms. Divya Rai, in collaboration with Dr. Monika Sogani, the faculty coordinator of Enviro Club, decided to randomly distribute samples of Saukhyam pads among the audience. This strategic move aimed to encourage firsthand experiences and gather genuine feedback from the participants, fostering a dialogue on the efficacy of sustainable sanitary options.

In summary, the Menstrual Health and Hygiene workshop hosted by the Enviro Club served as a platform for introducing Saukhyam and promoting awareness about eco-friendly menstrual pads. The event not only contributed to the dissemination of crucial information but also allowed for practical engagement through the distribution of samples, benefiting both the academic community and staff members alike.
